Permission form Child

Background

The Department for Education and Child Development (DECD) develops teaching and learning and promotional materials and publishes them in print (and paper) and digitally (on websites). Increasingly students are publishing their own materials on websites, for example, the school website, DECD website, Scootle or iTunes.

Request for Permission

The Department for Education and Child Development seeks permission to use the following:

- media (photo/film/audio recording) in which your child appears
- a written comment made by your child
- your child's work samples (for example, a painting, written work, podcasts).

Granting Permission

By completing and returning the permission form that was sent home with your child you are granting permission for the Department for Education and Child Development to use:

- an image or recording of your child which appears in a photo, film and/or audio recording to publish on paper and/or on websites under a *CC-BY -NC licence.
- your child's work samples on paper and/or on websites under a *CC-BY-NC licence
- an image or recording of your child which may identify your child by first name and/or school only; and
- work samples created by your child without identifying your child or identifying your child by first name and/or school only.

Note

- Not every item for which permission is granted will be used.
- Media, comments and/or work samples might not appear in exactly the form in which they have been submitted.
- Media, comments and/or work samples which contain images of or references to Indigenous people will be accompanied by warning text to indicate that the work may include references to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who may have passed away.
- * The material will be available to 'the world' to download and use under a CC-BY-NC licence. This licence is perpetual (forever), irrevocable, free, worldwide, non-exclusive licence and allows for the replication, distribution, display, performance and remixing of copyrighted work for non-commercial purposes, provided that the author is credited.
