

The Heights School Anti-Bullying Policy

Reviewed and updated September 2020

Policy Statement

Harassment, bullying and violence in all its forms have no place in The Heights School community. Our school affirms the right of all members of the school community to work, learn and play in a safe and secure environment.

Rationale

We believe that if our students are to learn effectively to achieve their best, and if all members of the school community are to contribute effectively to the learning process then the school must be free from all forms of harassment, violence and bullying.

Students are entitled to receive their education free from humiliation, oppression and abuse. Bullying affects everyone, not just those who bully and are bullied. It also affects those who may witness bullying, intimidation and the distress of the person bullied (including bystanders). It can damage the atmosphere of a class and even the climate of a school. We adopt a whole school approach in partnership with the wider school community (students, families, staff and community agencies).

We expect positive relationships between students, parents/caregivers and staff where diversity is embraced, all individuals are valued and positive behaviours are promoted.

We adopt a whole school approach to combat bullying in partnership with our school community as we believe that maintaining a safe school is everyone's responsibility.

Policy Context

This policy operates in conjunction with the following policies and is supported through our curriculum:

- Behaviour Management Policy
- Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Policy
- Department for Education policies
- The Child Protection Curriculum
- Wellbeing for learning and life framework
- Be You

What is Bullying?

*BULLYING:

- Repeated physical, verbal, psychological or social behaviour that is harmful and involves the misuse of power by an individual or group towards one or more persons. Cyber bullying refers to bullying through information and communication technologies.
- Bullying may be direct (or indirect)
- A conflict or fight between equals; or single incidents are not regarded as bullying.
- Bullying in any form or for any reason can have long term effects on those involved, including bystanders.

*HARASSMENT:

- Behaviour that targets an individual or group due to their identity, race, culture, religion, physical characteristics; gender; sexual orientation; ability or disability and that offends, humiliates, intimidates or creates a hostile environment. Harassment may be an ongoing pattern of behaviour, or it may be a single act.

*DISCRIMINATION:

- When people are treated less favourably than others because of their race; culture or religion; physical characteristics; gender; sexual orientation; marital, parenting or economic status; age; and/or ability or disability.
- Often ongoing and commonly involves exclusion or rejection.

*VIOLENCE:

- The intentional use of physical force or power, threatened or actual, against another person/s that results in psychological harm, injury or in some cases death. Violence may involve provoked or unprovoked acts and can be a single incident, a random act or can occur over time.

*CYBER BULLYING:

- Bullying which uses e-technology as a means of victimising others. It is the use of an internet service or mobile technologies – such as e-mail, chat room discussion groups, instant messaging, web pages or SMS – with the intention of harming another person. Examples include communications that seek to intimidate, control, manipulate, put down or humiliate the recipient.

*SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

- Unwelcome sexual conduct which makes a person (male or female, of the same or opposite gender, same-sex attracted, bisexual or transgender) feel offended, humiliated and/or intimidated, where that reaction to the conduct is reasonable in the circumstances.
- Sexual harassment can be a single incident, repeated or continuous, direct or indirect, and take various forms.
- Sexual harassment is a legally recognised form of sex discrimination.

Note: Behaviour of a sexual nature based on mutual attraction, friendship and respect, which is welcome or invited, consensual and reciprocal, does not constitute sexual harassment.

Examples of Bullying:

What can STUDENTS do about bullying?

1. Prevent bullying

- Treat all others with respect – do not bully or harass other students or their teachers
- Follow our School Values and understand, be compassionate and empathetic about the effects of bullying, discrimination, racism and sexual harassment on individuals and groups within our society
- Take responsibility for our own behaviour
- Develop appropriate skills and behaviours in communicating and working effectively with all others
- See a Yard Duty teacher or a Peer Mediator

2. Tell the person bullying to STOP if it's safe to do so. We can help ourselves to be safe.

3. Report bullying if it continues. It is not dobbing if you are reporting to keep yourself safe.

Bullying can be reported to any member of school staff, parents/caregivers or other trusted adults. School staff includes:

- Class Teacher or Student Services Officer
- Student Wellbeing Leaders / Pastoral Care Worker
- Year Level Leaders
- Curriculum Leaders
- Assistant Principal
- Deputy Principal
- Principal

4. Remember that you are a valued member of our school community and have the right to be safe.

- You do not deserve to be bullied. It is against our school policy.

5. Be a responsible bystander. If you witness bullying behaviour:

- Tell the person bullying to STOP if it's safe.
- Encourage and support the student being bullied to report it to a staff member.
- Give accurate information about the situation.

6. Accept responsibility for your behaviour. If you have been bullying others you need to:

- Listen to the effects of your behaviour on others
- Show that you are sorry for what you did
- Make suggestions to help repair harm or damage
- You may be required to participate in counselling and your parents/caregivers may be contacted.
- Know that if you continue to bully others, including threatening students for reporting bullying, more serious consequences will occur.

What will STAFF do about bullying?

To reduce bullying behaviours at The Heights School, we use prevention, intervention and post-intervention strategies.

PREVENTION

- Create a positive and respectful school climate in which bullying is less likely to occur – model respectful behaviour, positive classroom and yard management; engaging learning curriculum, use of formative assessment strategies; cooperative learning activities; strong student supervision, promote belonging and connectedness to school.
- Educate: teach and model the School Values; Implement the Australian Curriculum Health, Child Protection Curriculum (P-12), What's the Buzz and Play is the Way programs, Pastoral Care, social skills. These teach students about rights, responsibilities, relationships and ethical behaviour, resilience, friendship, violence prevention, conflict resolution and managing strong feelings.
- Celebrate: Teach students the value of diversity with whole school celebrations eg Harmony Day, Reconciliation Week, peer awareness of difference, RUOK day, NAIDOC week.
- Authentic student voice is encouraged: Develop programs that promote authentic student voice and participation.
- Parents/Caregivers & students annually agree to the school's Code of Conduct.
- Professional Learning is provided for staff, parents/caregivers and students in addressing bullying effectively and respectfully.
- School community reviews policy annually in Term 1. Policy is discussed, agreed with and/or suggest changes.

INTERVENTION

- Respond to ALL bullying and harassment incidents in the classroom and yard, even though they may not be responsible for students who are involved at that time.
- Actively discourage bullying: be observant, inform other staff, initiate procedures, provide advice and support, listen and be open to students (acting discreetly where appropriate), help access counselling.
- Listen and talk to the person who has been bullied and the person who has bullied others.
- Use an appropriate restorative process to help everyone involved repair and improve their relationships with each other and to feel a sense of justice.
- Put appropriate, negotiated consequences in place, relevant for the perpetrator/s and the situation. These may include Buddy class, Thinking Room or removal of privileges and in extreme cases, suspension or exclusion from school.
- Provide feedback to students/parents/caregivers about the situation, processes used and outcomes of attending to bullying and harassment.
- Teach students how bullying affects all involved; how to be responsible bystanders.

POSTVENTION & COPING

- Monitor the situation between students to ensure that their safety and wellbeing are maintained.
- Talk with parents or caregivers about assertiveness strategies.
- Ensure all parties (students, staff, parents/caregivers) are kept informed about the bullying and harassment incidents.

Signs that your child may be being bullied

- Mood changes (being quieter, more attention-seeking or tearful than usual)
- Temper tantrums
- Changes in eating or sleeping habits
- Unexplained symptoms or head and stomach aches
- Reluctance to go to school
- Changes in academic performance

What can PARENTS/CARERS do about bullying?

- Talk with your child every day about what has happened at school.
- Encourage your child to be tolerant, caring, resolve conflict assertively and to report all incidents of bullying.

- Watch for signs of distress which may indicate that your child may be being bullied (see above)

INTERVENTION

- Be an advocate for all students by reporting incidents which threaten their safety and wellbeing.
- Keep a written record if the bullying persists. Find out: what happened, who was involved, where it happened, who else saw/heard/read it.
- Discuss positive strategies rather than 'getting even'
- Inform a staff member immediately if you think your child is being bullied. If the bullying continues make an appointment to see a Student Wellbeing Leader, Year Level Leader or other leadership.
- Go to the Assistant Principal if you feel your child is being bullied by a teacher.

POSTVENTION & COPING

- Remind your child they are loved and valued and assist them in maintaining a positive sense of self.
- Monitor your child's use of the internet and report bullying or harassment through: <https://www.esafety.gov.au/>

Note: these steps are also useful if you think that your child:

- Has been involved in bullying or harassment of others
- As a bystander, may be affected by bullying or harassment of others
- As a bystander, has information and is concerned about other students being bullied.

Responding to bullying and harassment

Level 1 Bullying and Harassment (Low level)

These incidents can be annoying and hurtful and can escalate and then involve more serious forms of bullying (Level 2 or 3).

1. Interview all involved individually
2. Inform person bullying about effects of bullying. The actions are not acceptable at The Heights.
3. Inform person bullied about ways to deal with bullying
4. Meet perpetrator & receiver together if appropriate
5. Impose appropriate consequence – logical where appropriate and/or formal warning
6. Monitor carefully what happens next and be prepared to intervene
7. Complete and forward an incident report to home group/class teacher.

Who Responsible: All teaching staff are responsible for dealing with bullying and harassment at this level.

Level 2 Bullying and Harassment (ongoing, medium level)

Bullying at this level may be systematic and malicious over time. It may include cruel teasing, continual exclusion, minor threats or relatively minor physical abuse such as pushing, tripping or theft of property. It can escalate into more serious bullying (Level 3).

Follow steps above and include:

1. Formal documentation
2. Contact parents/caregivers
3. Counselling and mediation
4. Attendance at a social skills workshop
5. Appropriate consequences include: Thinking Room, Detention

Who Responsible: Year Level and Curriculum Coordinators

Level 3 Bullying and Harassment (ongoing, serious behaviour)

Bullying at this level is cruel, malicious and intense. It occurs over an extended period of time and is distressing to the person receiving it. It includes serious physical assaults and child protection issues, but is still considered severe if non-physical methods such as name-calling and exclusion are used.

Follow steps above and include:

1. Formal investigation and documentation
2. Meeting with parents/caregivers of those involved
3. Required educational activities (eg anger management)
4. Suspension/exclusion processes followed
5. Involve relevant agencies: eg Department for Education, CAMHS, SAPOL and report to the Child Abuse Report Line if required.
